

REPORT ON INFORMATION COLLECTED CONCERNING APPLICANT

Under section 60835 of title 2 of the California Code of Regulations, the Bureau of State Audits is responsible for collecting information concerning applicants for the Citizens Redistricting Commission that is needed by the Applicant Review Panel to perform its responsibilities. Pursuant to that regulation, Stephanie Ramirez-Ridgeway, Counsel for the Applicant Review Panel, requested information on behalf of the panel concerning an applicant being considered for selection to the Commission. This is a report by bureau staff in response to that request.

Name of Applicant: Theodore K. Green.

Date of request to collect information: May 17, 2010.

Statement of request: Applicant reported on his supplemental application that he has been a “political consultant” for a firm called Woodward & McDowell since 1990. Find out whether Applicant’s work at Woodward & McDowell includes having been a registered lobbyist within ten years prior to the date that he submitted his initial application.

Response to request: According to its website, Woodward & McDowell is a communications firm that specializes in operating ballot measure campaigns. It is not registered with the California Secretary of State as a lobbying firm, and bureau staff has found nothing to indicate that Applicant has been a registered lobbyist in California within the past ten years.

Recommendations: None.

Name and title of person submitting response: Steven Benito Russo, Chief of Investigations.

Response Date: May 18, 2010.
